	Examiner William A. Rivera	Art Unit 3654

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rasmussen (WO 96/23719) in view of Sichert (German Patent No. G 89 12 053).

With respect to Claim 15, Rasmussen, Figure 3, teaches an endpiece integrated into a core for a reel of material, the endpiece comprising a cylindrical part 34 engageable in said core, a collar 36 that bears against an adjacent face of the core, and a projecting overhanging appendage, the projecting appendage being provided along its length with a guiding retention groove 26 to act as a guide path. Rasmussen teaches all the elements of the endpiece except for the endpiece being guided on a bracket. However, Sichert, Figure 4, teaches a guide rotatably mounted on a bracket supporting the reel of material adjacent to a dispenser housing, and wherein said guide is on an inside of the bracket on a side on which the guide can accept the reel of material, and wherein the guide has raised lands 42 forming and defining a channel to accommodate the appendage of the endpiece. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a bracket, as taught by Sichert, for the purpose of providing a secure connection between the endpiece and the bracket.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rasmussen (WO 96/23719).

With respect to Claim 16, Rasmussen, Figure 3, teaches an endpiece for a core of a reel of material, comprising: a cylindrical bearing surface 34 engageable in the core; a discoidal face having a continuous outer surface that faces away from the core and an inner surface which extends radially beyond the bearing surface when the endpiece is inserted into the core; a cylindrical appendage projecting from a center of the outer surface of the discoidal face and being insertable into a guide; the appendage having a cylindrical groove 26 in a thickness and along a length of the appendage, the cylindrical groove forming a guide path which is engageable with the guide.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-14 are allowed.

Claim 17 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

The new grounds of rejection were necessitated by applicant's amendment, e.g., the requirement for "an endpiece", Claims 15-17.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
